5. Indicate which scholarship category you are applying for:

❑ Excellence and Promise (This will be offered to students residing in Gibraltar who show a high level of skill or have the potential to excel. Students will need to present 2 contrasting pieces as well as a series of technical skills in front or a panel as part of an audition process.)

❑ Financial Hardships (For students who find it difficult to finance extra-curricular activities and need support in order to be able to continue / start taking classes.)

Excellence and Promise Scholarship Terms & Conditions beginning September 2026

Students will need to show a high level of skill or potential to excel in their chosen discipline (Singing, Acting, Playing an Instrument)

You will need to present two contrasting pieces that present your skills at their best.

If you practice different disciplines you will need to audition separately for each.

This Scholarship is Valid for One Academic Year of weekly 30 minute or 1 hour one-to-one tuition (as recommended by the panel) in your chosen instrument / discipline under the Gibraltar Academy of Music and Performing Arts.

Residing in Gibraltar for 3 years or over

Tuition will be imparted by a member of staff from the Gibraltar Academy of Music and Performing Arts. Students (if not already enrolled) will enroll as part of the Academy.

This Scholarship will not conflict with any tuition held outside of our programme.

You may also be eligible for group tuition in your chosen instrument / discipline if these are available upon discussion with the selection board.

If, upon accepting the award, you cannot fulfill the conditions, the Principal of GAMPA must be informed and the scholarship will be discontinued.

This award will not be renewed automatically each year. There will be an annual selection process. Students will be eligible whether they have or haven't received the award in previous years.
